

ADVANCED SKILLS CERTIFICATE FOR YOUNG & MID-CAREER CIVIL LITIGATORS: ANALYSIS, PROCESS AND STRATEGY

John A. Campion

Quality mentorship is hard to come by in the legal profession these days. Especially for young civil litigators, getting trained by someone who has not only been to trial but to the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court of Canada is rare.

Such a mentor has designed this program.

As counsel in over 300 reported cases, John Campion has litigated in courts and tribunals across Canada – at all levels. With over 20 years of teaching experience and 40 years of mentoring lawyers, John's students have gone on to public service, the Court of Appeal, Trial Division, head legal departments and manage law firms.

In this 8-module certificate program, you will be taught a three-step system to understand any area of law quickly: Analysis, Process and Strategy.

Drawing on an eclectic combination of jurisprudence, law, process and everyday wisdom, John and his faculty of leading judges and practitioners will unpack each step. Upon successful completion of the program, you will receive a Certificate in Advanced Civil Litigation and become a better advocate for your clients!

More about John A Campion:

Retired Partner and Chair at Fasken ('74 to '17), Adjunct Professor at Osgoode and Toronto, Emeritus Bencher, President of the Federation of Law Societies, and currently a Partner at Gardiner Roberts LLP.

MODULE ONE:

Tuesday, Oct 30, 2018

Guest speaker: Malcolm Mercer, Treasurer, Law Society of Ontario and Partner, McCarthy Tétrault

To ground the program, a broad overview of the three pillars (analysis, process and strategy) will be discussed in the context of oral and written advocacy, the four sources of legal principles, and the Courts of Justice Act as a central statute detailing causes of action and remedies.

MODULE TWO

Tuesday, Nov 6, 2018

Guest Speakers: Antonio Di Domenico, Partner, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP and Alex Cameron, Partner, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP and Paul Schabas, Partner, Blake Cassels & Graydon LLP

In this module, you will review principles of contract and tort to identify relevant evidence. The inextricable connection between evidence and cause of action will be discussed and emphasized.

MODULE THREE

Tuesday, Nov 13, 2018

Guest Speakers: Jonathan Lisus, Partner, Lax O'Sullivan Lisus Gottlieb LLP and Nadia Campion, Partner, Polley Faith LLP

This module will teach you both the historical and current importance of restitution, property (including real and intellectual property), bankruptcy and insolvency, competition, securities, business corporations and privacy.

MODULE FOUR

Tuesday, Nov 20, 2018

Guest Speakers: The. Hon. Kathryn N. Feldman, Court of Appeal for Ontario and Mark Gelowitz, Partner, Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP

This module will deal with the litigation process, including general litigation, class actions, judicial review, evidence and investigations. You will learn how to simplify and create efficiencies in litigation strategy (both at the trial and appeal level), pleadings, production of documents, examinations for discovery, pre-trial settlement, and gatekeeper motions.

MODULE FIVE

Tuesday, Jan 15, 2019

Guest Speaker: William G. Horton, Arbitrator, William G. Horton Professional Corporation

This module will concentrate entirely on arbitration. Every litigator should be aware of how it works both domestically and internationally. William G. Horton, one of Canada's finest arbitrators and a leading instructor, will teach you the basic principles and statutes affecting modern arbitration.

MODULE SIX

Tuesday, Jan 22, 2019

Guest Speaker: Martha E. Simmons, JD, LL.M., Ph.D., Director, Winkler Professor of Dispute Resolution

Mediation has evolved into a separate analytical branch of dispute resolution. And yet there are other options to resolving disputes. You will learn about alternative complaint mechanisms and their implications, including Regulatory bodies, the Criminal Code, and publicity as a sanction.

All sessions will be held 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. (Registration at 5:00 p.m.) at Gardiner Roberts LLP

MODULE SEVEN
Tuesday, Jan 29, 2019

Guest Speaker: The. Hon. Todd L. Archibald, Superior Court of Justice of Ontario

This module will enable you to analyze strategic options and analytical frameworks through examples in resolving, litigating, arbitrating, mediating or settling disputes.

MODULE EIGHT
Tuesday, Feb 5, 2019

Guest Speaker: Earl A. Cherniak, QC, FC.Arb, Partner, Lerner LLP

This summary module will review the ideas discussed in the first seven modules, emphasizing ethics, skills planning, profile building, marketing and business development, and career planning. This module will deal with the importance of media in the modern world, and it will touch upon defamation and publicity as sanctions of conduct.
